Let us
WORSHIP
Together

WEEKDAY SCHEDULE

Thursday, November 26, 10AM – Holy Mass (Thanksgiving Day)

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Lord Jesus Christ, You are the One to Whom is given all dominion and glory and power. You are more majestic than all the wonders of creation. Your voice speaks trust; Your life gives power; Your love transforms. Your way is holy and just, for You are Ruler above all the kings of the earth. Forgive the fickleness of our feeble loyalty to Your reign on earth and by Your grace renew our love and faithfulness to You. Move our hearts toward one another so that with one voice we may faithfully proclaim Your rule of steadfast love and peace in this world. Amen.

COVID 19 PANDEMIC UPDATES

Due to the increased restrictions announced for Chicago today, the Parish Committee has decided to make the following changes in the Parish's activity schedule:

Sunday morning Fellowship after Mass has been suspended.

The Birthday Party for Jesus has been cancelled.

The Gingerbread House Party has been cancelled.

There will be no Christmas Dinner.

We will continue to have in-person Mass with masks, sanitizing and social distancing. Sunday School will also continue.

Many aspects of the upcoming holiday season and daily life has been upended by the coronavirus, which has left many children and families feeling depressed, anxious and uneasy. The uncertainty of when "normal" will return is a source of stress and even anger for some. Whether your family is living in lockdown, adjusting to unfamiliar routines, coping with new restrictions, or simply trying to make the most of inconveniences large and small, we can continue to maintain relationships virtually and digitally, learn new skills, continue familiar traditions safely as best you can, and continue to pray for each other.

happening, challenge yourself to control the way you respond.*

That's where your power is.

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

- OUR PARISH NEEDS YOU! The Nominating Committee is hard at work developing a slate of candidates to stand for election to the Parish Committee for 2021. As Christians, we are called to generously give of our time and talents. As members of the Polish National Catholic Church, we are governed by a Constitution which allows for each congregation to elect representatives to conduct the business of their Parish. As several members of our Parish Committee are stepping down after years of faithful service, filling the slate of candidates is especially challenging this year. We ask you to prayerfully consider standing for election to the Parish Committee. Your Nominating Committee members - Bishop Jerry, Father David, Doug Scott, Irena Kneeland and Judie Szydowski – will be contacting potential candidates personally over the next several weeks. But you do not need to wait for our call. Feel free to contact us at any time. The election will take place on Sunday, December 13 immediately following 9AM Mass.
- SOCL/PTO CHRISTMAS GIVING PROJECT – A Giving Tree is set up in the church vestibule with tags listing items needed for gifts for the sick and homebound of our Parish family. Parishioners and friends are invited to be a “Christmas Angel” and provide a $10 gift card from Target, Jewel or Walgreens to bring some Christmas cheer to our sick and homebound. Gift cards may be given to Margaret Rowinski or mailed to her attention at the church by December 6. Any questions should be directed to Margaret Rowinski (630-307-2990).

HEALTH PRECAUTIONS AT CHURCH

At this time, the 'better-safe-than-sorry' approach to our common life in our Parish is the approach to take for the immediate future. Face masks must cover the nose and mouth.

Therefore, at the passing of the Peace during Mass, we will eliminate handshaking, kissing and hugging as signs of God's peace being with you. Instead, a wave, a peace sign 'V', a smile can be substituted for the other gestures to ensure the health safety of all and to remove from some the stigma of their not desiring to participate in the Peace at this time while others would. Making the sign of the cross when entering to the church without the Holy Water. Greeting the clergy with a handshake at the doors after Mass will no longer take place. A smile and the brief greetings offered as usual will be sufficient.

Coughing and sneezing into your elbow and arm instead of uncovered into the air around you will be appreciated by everyone and reduce the risk of infection. As always, parishioners who are ill on a Sunday morning or exhibiting flu-like symptoms should remain at home from Mass until they are fully recovered from their illness.

The clergy will continue to wash their hands before Mass as they always do. Additionally, they will use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer before and after distributing communion. The CDC explains the following: Coronavirus symptoms include a fever, cough and shortness of breath. Symptoms could appear two to 14 days after exposure. The virus spreads through droplets when an infected person coughs or sneezes. People can also become infected by touching something with the virus on it then touching their mouth, nose or possibly eyes. We will observe these precautions as long as necessary.

CONFITEOR

Almighty Father, You know my deepest secrets. I confess that I have, through my own fault, sinned against Your holy laws striking the breast, and continuing in my thoughts, in my words and in what I have done or failed to do. I sincerely regret my sins and I am truly sorry for offending You. I ask, Father, that in Your mercy You pardon my sins. I promise to change my way of living so that through a deeper holiness I may better serve You throughout the rest of my life. I ask the Blessed Virgin Mary, all the saints and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord, our God.

GLORY (Please stand)

Glo-ry to God. Glo-ry to God. Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth, peace on earth, peace to peo-ple of good will.

READING I: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17 (Please be seated)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel:

Thus, says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

READING II: I Corinthians 15:20-26, 28 (Please be seated)

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: Matthew 25:31-46

(Remain standing)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

Response: And also with you.

Celebrant: A reading from the Holy + Gospel according to Matthew:

Response: Glory be to You Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me. Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

Celebrant: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS

(Please stand)

The Celebrant introduces the intercessions:

C: In baptism we were claimed for the reign of heaven. Let us pray to live as a people of the new creation where Christ reigns.

Then the Lector begins by saying:

L: Mindful that Christ is the eternal high priest of the good things to come, may we keep in mind our call to be a priestly people praising God's mercy. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

L: Remembering that Christ is the faithful witness of God's enduring love, may we be faithful witnesses of God's compassion for the poor, sick, and needy of our time. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

L: Rejoicing that Christ has reconciled all things to God through his cross, may we give witness to the gospel of peace through nonviolent living. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

L: Longing in hope for the new creation where every tear will be wiped away, may we use our voices to encourage world leaders to secure justice for the oppressed. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

L: Remembering that God's covenant with David is fulfilled in Christ, may all the nations of the earth be gathered into the heavenly Jerusalem on the last day. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

L: Believing that Christ is the judge of the living and the dead, may we be consoled that in Christ the faithful departed find abundant redemption. We pray:

R: Christ, keep us faithful to You.

The Celebrant will now offer the concluding prayer.

C: Christ, Alpha and Omega, hear us invoking Your help. Sustain us in grace that we may enter Your reign when all is complete, for You live and reign forever and ever.

R: Amen.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

(Nicene Creed)

I believe in One God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, of one being with the Father.

Through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary

here genuflect

AND BECAME MAN.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son, He is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
