PLEASE OFFER PRAYERS for Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Minneapolis, Father Jan Kutek and parishioners on the loss of their century old historic church building to a fire recently. Thankfully, no one was injured. Please refer to Bishop Jerry's letter which follows regarding this matter.

Very Reverend and Reverend Fathers,

We were all saddened by this terrible news when we learned about the fire burning quickly through the 107-year-old beautiful church building in Minneapolis.

When I look at the building, I see a lot of memories taken away. This is a very important place where many people found their faith in Jesus Christ. The history of the church runs deep with many families in the area. The church has been a longstanding pillar of the community, offering worship services.

Yes, last week was a dark moment in our lives, but as we can see the fire on the church building is quenched, the smoke is gone. Thankfully no one was hurt. There are no injuries to the firefighters and parishioners who tried to help save the building. The recovery will not happen in a day or two. The grief process will take its time. Under the guidance and care of Father John, with the support coming from the Diocesan Bishop Jerry, and from the office of the Prime Bishop Anthony, and from the parishes of the Polish National Catholic Church we will recover and we will rebuild this church to the glory of God and to the pride of God's people in Minneapolis.

Thank you to all who sent some help to Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Minneapolis. There is a need some extra help at this time before all the legal issues will be solved.

Please announce in your parishes that people can send their help directly to the parish, or they can send to the office of the Prime Bishop with the note on the check that it is a help to the Sacred Heart Parish in Minneapolis. Prime Bishop will announce this special campaign in God's Field and in all parishes of our Church.

Dear brothers, through these moments of suffering, we have an opportunity to grow and deepen our faith. We will go through this major crisis together and come through it.

While things are changing with the building, Sunday services will never stop there. The praying has not stopped either. Members of the parish will come together for the Holy Mass. The Holy Mass will be celebrated in the church hall.

We all know what is going on in Minneapolis at this time. I wanted to go there last Wednesday, but I was advised not to. I plan to go to Minneapolis at the beginning of May. Please pray for this parish. Lord, we need you to come and restore our strength, and renew our minds.

Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Minneapolis is in my thoughts and my prayers.

In Christ service,
Rt. Rev. Jerry Rafalko

Bishop Ordinary of the Western Diocese PNCC

PARISH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

May is an important month in the Church as it traditionally is the month of Mary where we recall the role of Mary in salvation. Mary is the Virgin Mother of God who was chosen to allow our Lord to take human form. Because of her complete trust in God, she lived her life sinlessly. She fell asleep in the Lord (Dormition) and was crowned as Queen of Heaven and Earth. She is, of course, not divine. We worship only Jesus Christ but we honor Mary as a saint. We honor God by remembering the role of Mary in the beginning of our salvation. And devotion to Mary always leads to Jesus Christ.

*Hail Mary, Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of death.
Amen.*

GLORY

(Please stand)

READING I: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 (Please be seated)

A reading from the Book of the Acts of the Apostles:

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, “Get up. I myself am also a human being.” Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, “In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him.” While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?” He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

READING II: I John 4.7-10

(Please be seated)

A reading from the First Letter of John:

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(Please stand)

GOSPEL: John 15:9-17

(Remain standing)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

Response: And also with you.

Celebrant: A reading from the Holy + Gospel according to John:

Response: Glory be to You Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: “As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. “I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.”

Celebrant: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Response: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

(Nicene Creed)

(Please stand)

I believe in One God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, of one being with the Father.

Through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary here genuflect

AND BECAME MAN.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried.

On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son, He is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic church. I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS
